Presidents Message

I hope everyone has had a safe, spiritual, happy holiday season. The new year always brings hope for new beginnings, and for renewal of the spirit. My hope also includes that the Presidents Club of Dayton will have a greater impact on our member organizations. Where they find our programming relevant and will increase attendance at our monthly meetings. Where they can enjoy the benefits of membership utilizing our Zoom account, our computer guru, and other ongoing offerings.

December 2022 was a jam-packed exciting month, filled with incredible events that included the Presidents Club of Dayton being recognized as a substantial Donor at the Sinclair Foundation 2022 Donor Reception. We had an enjoyable time and seeing our own recipient, Leanora Royster-Ivy thanking our Club for the scholarship we gave her and how it has helped her pursue her outstanding patent pending system that uses an aeroponic system to make vegetables grow, anywhere. She is one of many scholarship recipients who have outstanding successes. We are proud of our contributions to the Sinclair Community College Foundation.

(L-R) Kathy Vonderbrink, Justine Kangas, John Keller, President
Veronica Bedell-Nevels, Immediate Past-President Larry Horwath

If you were not at our December meeting, you missed a special time with three lovely ladies from the “Women’s Interfaith Forum of Greater Dayton.” They shared how their religions celebrate the holidays. Kelly Johnson, an associate professor of Religious Studies at the University of Dayton spoke about Catholicism and Christmas. She brought some beautifully crafted Christmas cookies to share. Bushra Shahid, from the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community and founder of the women's interfaith group spoke about the Islamic celebration of EID and shared a delicious carrot dessert. Judith Wall from our Jewish community, spoke about the history of Hanukkah, and shared some songs and of course a delicacy. We had a multi-cultural group of guests who truly enjoyed our end of year luncheon.

We would like to invite you to participate in the Miami Valley Military Affairs Bob Chiles golf classic. The Presidents Club of Dayton and the Miami Valley Military Affairs Association holds this event to raise funds to support military members in our community. Last year, we were able to donate over $10,000 to various support agencies including Fisher House and the First Sergeants Association. This year's golf outing will be held May 5, 2023 and we will once again be partnering with the Miami Valley Military Affairs Association. We expect to have another sold out event.

The Presidents Club of Dayton (PCoD) is a 501c(3), Miami Valley Military Affairs Association (MVMAA) is a 501c(6) not for profit organization formed in 1980 by several area Chambers of Commerce. These community leaders joined together with the leadership of Air Force Organizations. A board of Trustees, made up of 15 local Chambers from a five-county area and seven members-at-large, governs MVMAA. Since 1990, the MVMAA and The Presidents Club of Dayton have donated over $164,000 to the Fisher House & Over $16,000 to First Sergeant's Association.
