Presidents Message

Happy International Women's Month! During the month of March, Women are celebrated for the many achievements throughout history in art, athletics, business, government, philanthropy, humanities, science, and education. Celebrating Women's history traces back to 1911, when International Women's Day was observed in the United States on March 8. Over time, honoring women during March became Women's History Week. In 1980, President Jimmy Carter issued an official presidential proclamation that declared National Women's History Week the week of March 8. President Carter acknowledged the struggles of those who fought for equality- leaders like Sojourner Truth, Lucy Stone, Lucretia Mott, and Harriet Tubman. After being petitioned by the National Women's History Project in 1987, Congress passed an act declaring the entire month of March as Women's History Month. Women worldwide celebrate this month, thus, International Women's Month.

Women have contributed so much to society. We have made great strides in reducing the gender equity gap. However, we still have barriers to overcome. A segment of the population wants to subjugate the growth of women and girls in this country and around the world. Women have shown resiliency over time and will continue fighting for equal and fair access to healthcare, ensuring equal economic opportunities, educational equity, and ending gender-based violence. Celebrate the women who made a difference in your life and do research and learn about the women who have assisted our Democracy in sustaining itself.

In case you missed it, last month, we celebrated Black History Month and had a fun and lively luncheon meeting with Tom Nichols, Director of Media Relations & Broadcasting for the Dayton Dragons, with Grant Noffsinger. They shared the various fundraising opportunities that exist for our organizations to utilize.

Join us this month as we welcome the CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters Miami Valley, Anne Pfeiffer. Big Brothers Big Sisters Miami Valley is a nonprofit mentoring organization that serves approximately 400 youth in Greene, Miami, Montgomery, and Preble Counties. Big Brothers Big Sisters matches positive adult mentors ("Bigs") with youth mentees ("Littles"). Bigs and Littles meet four to eight hours monthly and participate in fun, safe activities while focusing on academic, behavioral, and social goals. Come and learn about Big Brothers Big Sisters and how you and members of your organization and our communities can get involved with this exceptional organization. My roommate and I were Big Sisters in college at The Ohio State University, which was a rewarding experience.

IN-PERSON LUNCH MEETING

Put our monthly one-hour lunch meetings (the third Wednesday of every month) on your Calendar and listen to speakers who can bring informative material to share with your membership.
